

Phillips & Cohen Associates Announces New Structure Under PCA Global Ventures Parent and Appoints Divisional CEO

Wilmington, Delaware — October 8, 2025 — PCA Global Ventures has officially launched as the parent company overseeing a global family of leading brands in financial recovery and estate management services. The group includes Phillips & Cohen Associates, Ltd., Ardent Credit Services, Invenio Financial, and The Estate Registry, which encompasses LegacyNOW, InheritNOW, and NotifyNOW.

For nearly three decades, these companies have specialized in deceased account care and other sensitive financial recovery services. By combining regulatory expertise with empathy-driven engagement, the group protects client reputations while delivering respectful solutions for families. As pioneers in estate management services, they have also developed cloud-based tools that simplify intergenerational estate management for executors and beneficiaries.

A Structure Built for Growth

The introduction of PCA Global Ventures establishes a corporate structure designed to enhance operational efficiency, provide opportunities for leadership development and growth, and support long-term global scalability, including strategic expansion and acquisitions. By housing executive leadership and shared services under one parent company, PCA Global Ventures provides consistency, alignment, and strategic direction across the group.

“This evolution reflects both our ambitions and the breadth of our services,” said Adam Cohen, Chairman and CEO of PCA Global Ventures. “By creating a framework that fosters innovation and operational efficiency, we are strengthening how we operate today while positioning the group for sustainable growth in the future.”

Alongside the launch, PCA Global Ventures has announced Nick Cherry, Phillips & Cohen Associates’ long-serving Chief Operating Officer, has been named Divisional CEO of Phillips & Cohen Associates and Ardent Credit Services. “Nick has been instrumental in the growth and expansion of our brands in the UK and globally, and we are honored to introduce him as Divisional CEO for both the Phillips & Cohen and Ardent brands,” added Matt Phillips.

“I am thrilled and grateful to the Board for having the opportunity to take on the role of Divisional CEO of both Phillips & Cohen Associates and Ardent Credit Services,” said Cherry. “As critical servicing arms of PCA Global Ventures, the continued success and growth of both organizations will play a fundamental role in achieving the group’s future ambitions. Both companies have exemplary reputations in the global recoveries management industry, and our goal is to continue to earn the trust of our clients through compliance, performance, innovation, and the standards we bring to every partnership.”

Specialist verticals within the group will continue to focus on their respective areas of expertise:

- Phillips & Cohen Associates — award-winning global probate and estate account care
- Ardent Credit Services — technology-led first and third-party collections and recoveries
- Invenio Financial — innovative, specialized debt portfolio acquisitions solutions
- The Estate Registry — consumer technology services simplifying estate management for executors and beneficiaries

About PCA Global Ventures

PCA Global Ventures is the parent company of Phillips & Cohen Associates Ltd, Ardent Credit Services, Invenio Financial, and The Estate Registry. For nearly three decades, these companies have specialized in compassionate deceased account care, compliant recovery services, technology driven debt settlement solutions and strategic acquisition. By combining regulatory expertise with empathy-driven engagement, the group protects client reputations while delivering respectful outcomes for consumers. Additionally, as pioneers in estate management services, their cloud-based tools simplify intergenerational estate management for executors and beneficiaries. With a long-standing reputation for empathetic and innovative programs, PCA Global Ventures provides the structure, leadership, and operational efficiency to support long-term growth and scalability across its family of brands.

Media Contact

Society22 PR

phillipscohen@society22pr.com

(929) 367-8993